No. 4:12-cv-00790-SBA

~~[PROPOSED]~~ STIPULATED
 PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 WHEREAS during the course of this action, the parties and certain non-parties may be 2 subject to discovery requests and/or proceedings that seek the disclosure of information that the 3 party or non-party to whom the request is directed considers to be confidential and/or 4 proprietary.

5 WHEREAS the parties wish to preserve the confidentiality of such information through 6 the use of a Protective Order.

7 IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between 8 Service Key, LLC (“Service Key”); Angela Vines (“Vines”); DLT Federal Business Systems 9 Corporation, also known as FBSCGov (“DLT”); and Oracle America, Inc. (“Oracle”), subject to 10 the approval of the Court, that the following Order shall govern the handling of documents, 11 depositions, deposition exhibits, interrogatory responses, admissions and any other information 12 or material produced, given or exchanged by and among the parties and any non-parties to this 13 litigation (including, without limitation, any non-party that seeks to intervene or to object to any 14 of the proceedings in the litigation) in connection with discovery in this litigation.

15 This Protective Order is not a waiver or relinquishment of a party's confidentiality claim 16 to any designated materials. This Protective Order also shall not abrogate or diminish any 17 privilege.

18 The obligations and protections imposed by this Protective Order shall continue beyond 19 the conclusion of this action or until the Court orders otherwise.

20 A. Designated Material

21 1. The parties may designate documents produced, testimony given, or any 22 other materials exchanged in connection with this action as “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes 23 Only” under the terms of this Order and Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). Collectively, “Confidential” and 24 “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” materials may be described herein as “Designated Materials.”

25 2. Any non-party to this action may designate any documents produced by it, 26 whether pursuant to subpoena or by agreement, as “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” 27 pursuant to the terms of this Order and Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).

28 3. Subject to the Federal Rules of Evidence, Designated Materials may be

1 offered as evidence at trial, subject to any restrictions the Court may order or apply to protect the 2 Designated Materials from unauthorized disclosure. A Party may move the Court for an order 3 that any evidence designated as Designated Materials shall be received at trial in camera or under 4 other conditions necessary to prevent disclosure to third parties. Members of the jury are not 5 such "third parties" and are authorized recipients of Designated Materials, although either party 6 may seek an instruction from the Court that members of the jury should not disclose any 7 Designated Materials outside of Court. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be deemed to 8 waive the right of any party to object to the admission into evidence of any information covered 9 by this Protective Order.

10 In the event that a party inadvertently fails to designate materials or information 11 as Confidential under this Protective Order, the Designating Party may designate materials or 12 information as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only by delivering written notice to the other 13 party and by producing a copy of the material or document with the confidential designation 14 required by this Protective Order. The other parties shall destroy all prior copies of the material 15 or document, and thereafter shall treat the document or material as Designated Materials under 16 this Protective Order. If the receiving party disclosed the material or document before being 17 notified, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it, but the receiving party shall not be deemed to 18 have breached this Protective Order for disclosure(s) of the material or document prior to 19 receiving the notice designating it as Designated Materials. Counsel for the parties are 20 responsible for employing reasonable measures, consistent with this Order, to control 21 duplication, distribution of and access to Designated Materials.

22 3. "Confidential" shall mean all documents and testimony, and all 23 information contained therein, and other information designated as confidential, if such 24 documents or testimony contain information subject to any state or federal right of privacy, trade 25 secrets, proprietary business information, competitively sensitive information, information 26 required be kept confidential pursuant to 48 CFR 352.239-72(b), or any other non-public 27 business information, the disclosure of which would, in the good faith judgment of the party 28 designating the material as confidential, be detrimental to the conduct of that party's business or

1 the business of any of that party's customers or clients if the material becomes public.

2 5. "Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall mean all documents and testimony, and all 3 information contained therein, and other information designated as "Attorneys' Eyes Only," if 4 such documents or testimony contain highly sensitive private information, non-public business or 5 financial information, or software code, the disclosure of which would, in the good faith 6 judgment of the party designating the material as "Attorneys' Eyes Only," cause serious and 7 irreparable harm to that party's business or the business of any of that party's customers or 8 clients if the material is disclosed to persons allowed to see Confidential material beyond the 9 persons specified in Section B.2 below. The parties anticipate that this designation will be used 10 very sparingly. Information that is already publicly available may not be designated as 11 "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only."

12 6. "Producing Party" shall mean the parties to this action and any non-13 parties producing "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" information in connection with 14 depositions, document production or otherwise, or the party asserting the confidentiality 15 privilege, as the case may be.

16 7. "Receiving Party" shall mean the parties to this action and any non-17 parties receiving "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" information in connection with 18 depositions, document production, or otherwise.

19 8. The Receiving Party may, at any time, notify the Producing Party that the 20 Receiving Party does not concur in the designation of a document or other material as 21 "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only." If the Receiving Party contends that any document or 22 other material designated as "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" is not entitled to 23 confidential treatment, the Receiving Party shall give written notice to the party who designated 24 the material, specifically identifying the challenged material. The designating party, by its 25 counsel, shall respond in writing within 10 days of receipt of the written request, or within such 26 other period of time as may be designated by order of the Court or agreement of the parties. If 27 the designating party refuses to remove the "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" 28 designation, its written response shall state the reasons for this refusal. If the challenge to the

1 confidential designation is not resolved after a good faith meet and confer, the party challenging 2 the designation may move before the Court for an order declassifying those documents or 3 materials. If no such motion is filed, such documents or materials shall continue to be treated as 4 designated by the Producing Party. If such a motion is filed, the documents or other materials
5 shall be deemed as designated by the Producing Party unless and until the Court rules otherwise.

6 B. Access to Designated Materials

7 1. Except with the prior written consent of the Producing Party or by Order 8 of the Court, “Confidential” information shall not be furnished, shown or disclosed to any 9 person or entity except to:

- 10 a. Vines, or personnel of Service Key, DLT, or Oracle involved in the 11 litigation of this matter and who have been advised of their 12 obligations hereunder;
- 13 b. Outside Counsel of record for the parties to this action and their 14 associated attorneys, paralegals and other professional personnel 15 (including support staff) who are directly assisting such counsel in 16 the preparation of this action for trial or other proceedings herein, 17 are under the supervision or control of such counsel, and who have 18 been advised by such counsel of their obligations hereunder.
- 19 c. Expert witnesses or consultants retained by the parties or their 20 counsel to furnish technical or expert services in connection with 21 this action or to give testimony with respect to the subject matter of 22 this action at the trial of this action or other proceeding herein; 23 provided, however, that such Confidential information is furnished, 24 shown or disclosed in accordance with Paragraph (B)(4) below;
- 25 d. The Court and court personnel;
- 26 e. An officer before whom a deposition is taken, including 27 stenographic and video reporters and any necessary secretarial, 28 clerical or other personnel of such officer;

- f. Trial and deposition witnesses;
- g. Any person indicated on the face of a document to be the author, addressee, or a copy recipient of the document;
- h. Vendors with whom counsel of record for the parties to this litigation have contracted for purely clerical functions, such as the copying of documents;
- i. Mock jurors and jury consultants who have been engaged by any party and/or a party's consultant in preparation for trial. For any jury research, an appropriate screening process must be used to assure that the jury consultant(s) and mock jurors chosen for any mock jury presentation are not current or former officers, directors, employees or consultants of any party or any direct competitors of any party. Each jury consultant and/or mock jurors must agree in writing to be bound by this Order by signing and undertaking the form of Exhibit A to this Order; and
- j. Any other person agreed to by the parties.

2. Except with the prior written consent of the Producing Party or by Order of the Court, "Attorneys' Eyes Only" information shall not be furnished, shown or disclosed to any person or entity except to Jeff Ross, Oracle's Managing Counsel, and Debbie Miller, Oracle's Director of Litigation, and those persons listed above in Paragraph (B)(1) under item (b), item (c) (subject to Paragraph (B)(4) below), item (d), item (e), item (g), item (h), and item (j). Attorneys' Eyes Only information may be furnished, shown or disclosed to any person or entity listed above under Paragraph (B)(1)(f) if that person or entity is (i) an author, addressee, or a copy recipient of the document, or (ii) an employee, officer, or director of the Producing Party. For any person or entity under Paragraph (B)(1)(f) that is not within the scope of the preceding sentence, Attorneys' Eyes Only information may be furnished, shown or disclosed to such person or entity only (i) with the prior written consent of the Producing Party or by Court Order, and (ii) after the person or entity has signed Exhibit A attached hereto and agreed to comply with

1 and be bound by its terms.

2 3. Confidential and Attorneys' Eyes Only information shall be utilized by the 3 Receiving Party and/or its counsel, as applicable, only for purposes of this litigation and for no 4 other purposes.

5 4. Before any disclosure of Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only 6 information is made to an expert witness or consultant pursuant to Paragraph (B)(1)(c) above:

7 (a) The Receiving Party must first identify that individual to Outside 8 Counsel for the Designating Party, who shall have seven (7) business days from receipt of such 9 notice to object in writing to such disclosure to any individual so identified. Failure to object 10 within seven (7) business days to a person proposed shall be deemed approval. Such 11 identification shall at least include the full name and professional address and/or affiliation of the 12 individual, his or her prior employment, a statement that said expert is neither an employee of a 13 party nor anticipated to become an employee in the near future, consultancies or testimony for 14 the previous five years, and all of the person's other present employment or consultancies in the 15 field. The disclosure as to said consultancies shall identify, if applicable, the attorney, law firm 16 and client involved. The parties shall attempt to resolve any objections informally, and approval 17 by the Designating Party shall not be unreasonably withheld. If the objections cannot be 18 resolved, the objecting party must to preserve its objections move, within seven (7) business days 19 following its objection, for a protective order preventing disclosure of Designated Materials to 20 the individual. In the event that such a motion is made, the party seeking to prohibit disclosure 21 shall bear the burden of proving that the disclosure is inappropriate. Prior to the resolution of 22 any such objection, an opposing party's Designated Materials shall not be disclosed to person(s) 23 so designated. Without modifying any obligations under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 24 the parties shall not have any obligation under this Protective Order to identify which materials 25 are provided to Outside Consultants. Neither party seeking to have a consultant shall disclose 26 any information Designated Materials to the proposed consultant until: (1) After any and all 27 objections to the proposed disclosure have been resolved by the parties in writing or by court 28 order; or (2) If no objections have been made during the seven (7) business day period to object.

(b) Counsel for the Receiving Party must obtain from the expert, the expert's written agreement, in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto, to comply with and be bound by its terms. Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only information may be provided to an expert witness or consultant to the extent necessary for such expert or consultant to prepare a written opinion, to prepare to testify, or to assist counsel in the prosecution or defense of this litigation, provided that such expert or consultant (i) is not currently an employee of, or advising or discussing employment with, or consultant to, any party to or any competitor of any party to this litigation, as far as the expert or consultant can reasonably determine, and (ii) is using said Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only information solely in connection with this litigation. Where an expert witness or consultant has employees at the same firm or company working at the direction of the expert witness or consultant, only the expert witness or consultant (and not the other employees) need sign Exhibit A. However, the employees shall also be bound by the confidentiality obligations in this Order to the same extent the expert witness or consultant is.

C. Designation Of Materials

The designation of materials as "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" for purposes of this Order shall be made in the following manner by any Producing Party:

1. In the case of documents or other materials (apart from depositions or other pretrial testimony), by affixing the legend "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" to each page containing any Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only information, except that in the case of multi-page documents bound together by a staple or other permanent binding, the word(s) "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" need only be stamped on the first page of the document in order for the entire document to be treated as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only; provided that the failure to designate a document as "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" does not constitute a waiver of such claim, and a Producing Party may so designate a document after such document has been produced, with the effect that such document is thereafter subject to the protections of this Order.

2. In the case of depositions or other pretrial testimony, (a) by a statement on the record, by counsel, at the time of such disclosure; or (b) by written notice, sent to all parties

1 within 10 days after receiving a copy of the transcript thereof (not to include “rough” 2 transcripts), and in both of the foregoing instances, by directing the court reporter that the 3 appropriate confidentiality legend be affixed to the first page and all portions of the original and 4 all copies of the transcript containing any Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only material. Unless 5 otherwise stated on the record, all depositions and other pretrial testimony shall be deemed to be 6 “Confidential” until the expiration of the tenth day after counsel receives a copy of the transcript 7 thereof, after which time such deposition or pretrial testimony shall be treated in accordance with 8 its designation, if any. The parties may modify this procedure for any particular deposition, 9 through agreement on the record at such deposition, without further order of the Court.

10 D. Inadvertent Production Of Privileged Materials

11 1. If information subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege, attorney work 12 product or any other ground on which production of such information should not be made to any 13 party is nevertheless inadvertently produced to a party or parties, Federal Rule of Evidence 14 502(b) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B) shall apply.

15 2. The failure of a party at a deposition to challenge the assertion of any 16 privilege, work-product protection or immunity over any document shall not prejudice the right 17 of such party to challenge the assertion of any such privilege or immunity in accordance with the 18 other procedures described in this paragraph.

19 E. Other Items

20 1. If any party intends to file with the Court materials that have been 21 designated as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only, the filing party must comply with Civil 22 Local Rule 79-5. Prior to any dispositive motion hearings and/or trial in this matter, counsel for 23 the parties shall meet and confer to negotiate a proposal regarding the treatment of Confidential 24 or Attorneys’ Eyes Only information proposed to be used at such hearing or trial. Ultimately, the 25 determination of treatment of Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only information at such hearing 26 or trial will be determined by the Court.

27 2. The parties to this action agree that the production of any discovery 28 material by any non-party shall be subject to and governed by the terms of this Order.

1 3. The parties and any other persons subject to the terms of this Order agree 2 that the Court shall retain jurisdiction over them for the purpose of enforcing this Order.

3 4. Upon termination of this litigation, any appeal or the expiration of the 4 right to appeal, all originals and copies of any Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only information 5 shall either be destroyed or returned to the Producing Party.

6 5. Nothing in this Order shall prevent any party or other person from seeking 7 modification of this Order or from objecting to discovery that it believes to be otherwise 8 improper.

EXHIBIT A

I have been given a copy of the Stipulated Protective Order entered in the actions titled Oracle America, Inc. v. Service Key, LLC et al., Civil Action No. 4:12-cv-00790-SBA, pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California. I have read and understand the terms of the Order. I understand that unauthorized disclosure of “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information will constitute a violation of the Order and that the parties reserve the right to seek appropriate redress, including sanctions, from the Court for willful violations thereof. With full knowledge of the terms and requirements of the Order, I agree to be bound by its terms. I agree that I shall not disclose to others, except in accordance with the Order, such information or documents, and that such information or documents shall be used only for the purpose of the legal proceeding in which the documents were produced. I further agree and attest to my understanding that my obligation to honor the confidentiality of such information or documents will continue even after the termination of this legal proceeding.

I agree to subject myself to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California for the purposes of enforcement of this Order.
